To Whom It May Concern:

As a 30+ year Real Estate Developer I feel I am qualified to rate competency and service in sales. I have completed two aviation transactions with John Bartelt since 2007. I have found John Bartelt and Bartelt Aviation to be friendly, helpful, experienced and absolutely competent on aviation matters. Their experience and knowledge makes for smooth closings and they are truly professional. My closings were calm, smooth and without drama! I am a very happy customer and I would not hesitate to use or recommend Bartelt Aviation.

Sincerely,

Tim White
